A Commonwealth of Collaboration

KINBER BLUE JEANS VIDEOCONFERENCING

KINBER BlueJeans Meet Me service offers cloud-based videoconferencing with the ability to connect to a live videoconference via a simple browser interface. No software downloads or client installs necessary. Participants can connect via a hardware or software codec or via a mobile video-enabled device or by audio call in only.

KINBER MEMBER EVALUATED

KINBER conducted a six-month pilot of the BlueJeans Meet Me cloud-based videoconferencing solution from July 1 – December 31, 2015. Based on pilot participant feedback and interest, KINBER offers BlueJeans Meet Me as a service to the community with institutions able to take advantage of significantly discounted pricing based on aggregate volume/interest. KINBER has negotiated a highly competitive per named host price with BlueJeans through AT&T for the KINBER community in Pennsylvania.
